PREFACE

I started researching my father's family (MILLER, PROBASCO) about 1978. There are three reasons why I got started and I may add that it has been one of the most interesting and pleasant projects I have attempted:

1st, I never had the pleasure of knowing any of my relatives as I was growing up, (other than my Aunt Jesse Ballinger, and her family when they moved next door to us in the early 40s). I always wondered what they were like, where they came from, their origins, my ancestry and my parentage. I can remember as a child wondering about my mother and father's families, but never asked because it was something in the past that we never dared to ask about. My step-mother would not allow any mention of my mother's or father's family. May I prove my case by the death certificate of my grandmother, Margaret Miller, who passed away on 26 Jul. 1941. It will be found on page 219. You will note that my father was not mentioned as being a member of the family. All sons and daughters were listed but not my family. WHY? Even though I remember attending her funeral. Anyhow I digress....Like most children it wetted my appetite and I wanted to get to know them. I did not start this research until I was in my early fifties.

2nd, I believe it was in the early 40's when my father got word that his mother's side of the family was going to court to try and get back the property that has been in the hands of the Trinity Church in Manhattan, New York, since the mid 1600's. That was the first time I had heard the name Everardus Bogardus, Anneke Jans, and William the Silent of Orange of Holland. Dad told us all about what happened to the property at her death. Nothing ever came of this investigation, but it stuck in my mind all those years and I wanted to find the truth, or to find if there was any truth to the story.

3rd, I loved history. This has been an education that has taken me from Germany, all across the United States. From the landing of our ancestors in New York harbor in the early 1600's, their service in the revolutionary war, settling all across the new country, fighting in the Civil War, homesteading in Kansas, and making the Cherokee Run in 1893, and on to California.

Since I did so much research and found so much history connected with our family, I thought you too might like to read some of the back ground history our forefathers lived in and through. I am starting with our first family who settled here and how they came.

This is a background of how our forefathers settled in what is now called Manhattan, and the story of Everardus Bogardus and Anneke Jans. About the Trinity Church who still owns the sixty-two acres in Manhattan because the court case was never settled. You too are part of that inheritance. For those who are interested in that part of our history I have included it here for your pleasure.

THE FOLLOWING IS ON THE PROBASCO SIDE OF OUR FAMILY:

NEW AMSTERDAM

Continental Europe at the beginning of the 16th century was ruled mostly by France and Spain. Germany and Italy was made up of small states and they had no general government. Spain and Portugal took the lead in Europe as far as America was concerned.

This is how it came about in the eighth century....the Spanish peninsula was overrun by Mohammedan Moors. The Christians were brought under their rule or driven back into the mountains. This was the beginning of Portugal, who along with Spain discovered a lot of the new world of the Americas in the 1400's as you know from your history books.

Next to England the Dutch had the greatest influence on America than any European people. The middle of the 16th century the term Netherlands, or Low Countries, was what is now the countries of Belgium and the Netherlands and was made up of 17 provinces. In 1555 Philip of Spain became ruler of the Low Countries. The Protestant movement had already come to the Netherlands and made many converts. Now up until the beginning of the 16th century the people in all of Europe west of Russia and the Balkan Peninsula, except the Moors of Spain and the Jews, belonged to the Roman Catholic Church. The church was well organized with the Pope at the head.

Early in the 16th century in Germany Martin Luther led a revolt against the Catholic Church. It started as a protest against what Luther considered improper practices of the church. The church banned him from their church and that was the beginning of the Protestant and Catholics. The Protestant faith spread quickly over Germany and the Scandinavian countries.

Philip in his effort to stamp out this heresy carried out a most cruel policy of persecution through the Inquisition. As a result there broke out a revolt (1568) that was one of the bravest fights for political and religious freedom in history. The Low Countries united with Philip and remained under Spanish control. That is now the country of Belgium. The seven northern provinces, now thoroughly Protestant, continued to fight under the leadership of William the Silent of Orange until their independence. When the Dutch gained their independence from Spain in 1581, the Dutch Republic soon became a leading power in Europe. In 1602 the Dutch West India Company entered upon active trade with the East.

Henry Hudson in 1609 was hired by the Dutch West India Company. He sailed along the North American coast from Newfoundland and to the Virginia's, then turned northward again and entered New York harbor. After sailing for eleven days they reached the present site of Albany. After claiming the land for the Dutch, started a trade with the Indians in 1610.

The territory designated as New Netherland included all the land lying between the 40th and the 45th parallels of latitude. The later part of 1614 a stockade post known as Fort Nassau was erected on the present site of Albany. About the same time a few crude huts were built on Manhattan Island for trading with the Indians. The monopoly privileges of this company were not renewed at the end of their three year period (1619) and the American trade was thrown open to all Netherlanders. The Dutch West India Company got a charter from the State General in 1621. It was given authority to trade and plant settlements anywhere on the coast of Africa or in America with power to govern the colonies as might be established.

In the Spring of 1624 the ship New Netherland brought over about 30 families, a majority of whom were Walloons, that is descendants of Protestant refugees from the Spanish Netherlands (now Belgium). The expedition was under the command of Cornelis May, the first governor of New Netherland. They first landed on Manhattan Island and were scattered around. Some settled Fort Orange the site of Albany near Fort Nassau. Eight men stayed on Manhattan to hold it.

The mother land furnished the people with food and goods. More immigrants came over in 1625. By the years end there were about 200 people here.

In 1626 a settlement was made on the lower end of Manhattan Island to be called Fort Amsterdam. In that year the Island of Manhattan was bought from the Indians for the sum of six guilders, or about $24.00 by Peter Minuit the governor of the Colony. The 22,000 acres on Manhattan was bought at the rate of approximately ten cents on an acre. Forty log houses were built and the village was known as New Amsterdam and became the capital of New Netherlands.

This is about the time that our family came to America, or so the story goes. I have yet to trace us back to that time and family. Our grandmother was notified in the early 20's that she was a descendent of this early settlement. A book was offered to all descendants titled "TRINITY, BREAK YE MY COMMANDMENTS", for the price of $25.00, to help pay for research, lawyers and court costs. Nothing ever came of this, however I remember being told that the attorney had been murdered. I think some members of the family still have the above book but I have never had the privilege of reading it.

Evert Willaime Bogaert became Everhardus Bogardus, because it was the practice at that time to turn the names into Latin. The name later became Bogart. (The name changes that were made down through the years makes it difficult to trace the families back through the years. Also most families in the early years were unable to read or write, so their names were spelled by sounding the name out.) Reverend (Dominie) Everardus Bogardus, came over in the Spring of 1633 with the new Director General Wauter Van Twiller a former clerk in the West India Company warehouse in Amsterdam. His church was situated near Pearl Street, between Whitehall and Broad. The cemetery was laid out on W. Broadway above Morris Street. Dominie Bogardus was provided a house on Whitehall Street near Bridge Street.

Under Van Twiller arose a system of private ownership of property on Manhattan. Of these grants two have special interest to us. In 1636 Roelof Jansen, a former farm superintendent obtained a tract of 62 acres, beginning about the present Warren Street and extending along Broadway as far as Duane Street, Then northwesterly to Canal Street. The western boundary roughly coinciding with Greenwich Street. THIS WAS THE ORIGIN OF THE FAMOUS " TRINITY CHURCH PROPERTY."

The following was taken out of the book, "Anneke Jans Bogardus and New Amsterdam", by Thomas Bently Wikoff, published in 1924. I will include a copy of the Will written by Anneke. It was originally written in German Dutch.

ANNEKE JANS BOGARDUS

Anneke Webber, born 1605, and the original subject of our review, whether because of her independent nature, or because of the reputed displeasure of her Royal ancestor, emigrated to America with her husband and young family in 1630, and the husband of Anneke, soon after their arrival in this country, adopted the usual Dutch custom as to his name, that is, taking his first name "Jan" and affixing thereto the Dutch derivative "sen" mean son and taking his middle name for his first name we therefore have ROELOFF JANSEN, the son of Roeloffson.

Roeloff Jansen, it appears, had a three year contract with the Patroon, Killian Van Rennsalear, the wealthy Director of the Dutch West India Company, and who had extensive estates up the Hudson River, near the present site of Albany, New York. Consequently, when Anneke and her husband arrived in America, they first located at Beverwyck, on the Hudson River, and near Fort Orange, and which fort was named after the Prince of Orange, and from whom it is said Anneke was descended.

Roeloff Jansen busied himself upon the estates of Van Rennsalear, where he was employed at the rate of $72.00 per year. They remained there for three years, or during the period of his contract, and at the expiration of which time, they came to New Amsterdam, and arriving there in 1633.

History seems to be silent regarding the activities of Roeloff Jansen from 1633, when he first came to New Amsterdam, until 1636, when he obtained in the name of himself and Anneke a land grant of 62 acres, from Wouter Van Twiller, the then Director General for the Dutch West India Company, and which 62 acres later became famous in history and litigation as the "Dominie's Bowery" or "Preachers Farm" and so called after the second husband of Anneke, namely, Dominie Everardus Bogardus.

Roeloff Jansen, after obtaining the 62 acre tract of land from Director General Van Twiller, did not long enjoy the fruits of his New Amsterdam possession, he having died in 1637, leaving Anneke, and four children, as mentioned in her Will in 1663,

One biographer, however, states that five children were left by Jansen when he died, the last child being another Anneke, while another historian gives the name of the fifth child as Ann Maria and who later married Christian Barentson Van Horn, but this statement has not yet been verified, moreover, Anna Maria was not mentioned in the Will of Anneke Jans Bogardus, therefore it is thought that Anna Maria was a daughter of Tyman Jansen, and his wife Marytje Webber Jansen, who was a sister of Anneke Jans Bogardus.

According to the Dutch law in force in the new colony, the grant having been made to Roeloff and his wife Anneke, made them the owners in community, and if he died without a Will, the widow would retain one-half, the other half being equally divided among his surviving children. The English law in force after the capture in 1664, would descend the children's portion to Jan, the son, and the exclusion of the female heirs, however, the mother Anneke, exercised full control and ownership over the entire farm after the death of her first husband in 1637.

The children born to the first marriage of Anneke Jansen, were as follows; - Sarah, first married to Dr. Hans Kierstead, and to whom were born ten children namely: JAN, ROELOFF, ANNA, BLANDINA, JOACHIM, LUCAS, CATHERINE, JACOB 1st, JACOB 2nd, and RACHEL.

Dr. Kierstad died about 1667, and Sarah married the second time to Cornelius Van Borsum, and to whom was born one child, namely a daughter Johannah, who married a Doremus.

Catrina or Catherine was the second child of Anneke Jansen, and Catrina was first married to Lucas Rodenburg, and they had one child, namely, a daughter Lucretia. Catherine was married the second time to Johannes Van Brugh, (who was the prime mover in the famous transport of 1670 here-inafter prominently mentioned) and they had five children as follows: - Helen 1st, Helen 2nd, Catherine, Peter and Maria.

Fytje Roeloffson, the daughter of Anneke Jansen, was married to Peter Hartgers. Fytje Roeloffson Hartgers died some time prior to the death of her mother, Anneke, who died in 1663; Fytje left two daughters, Jannetje and Rachel.

Jan Roeloffson, the fourth child, and the only son of Anneke Jansen by her first husband, was killed by Indians, dying a bachelor.

Anneke Jansen did not long remain a widow, and in 1638, was married to her second husband, Dominie (Preacher) Everardus Bogardus, who came from Holland in 1633, upon the same ship that brought over the Director General Wouter Van Twiller. Dominie Bogardus was the first preacher sent to the new colony of the Dutch West India Company, who had agreed to furnish the colonists with a preacher and a schoolmaster.

With the marriage of Everardus Bogardus with the widow, Anneke Jansen, he thus, in addition to his clerical duties, assumed the care of a landed proprietor, not only with regard to the 62 acre "North," or Hudson River Farm, which soon came to be known as the Dominie's Bouwerie, but also according to J. H. Innes in his book, "New Amsterdam and It's People", (page 16) as to another and less convenient tract which the Dominie and his wife had acquired. The tract, says Innes, was situated some three or four miles up the East River, and at the mouth of Mespats Kill or Creek. Innes further states that this tract covered about 130 acres of upland and meadows, valued for the supply of salt hay for the horses and cattle. The Dominie leased out this land as early as 1642, though no house had been erected upon it till that time. This tract, says Innes, acquired the name of "Dominie's Hook," and is now occupied by the dismal suburb called Hunter's Point. More will be said about this tract of land later on, as a result of investigations and research, because it has also been the subject of litigation.

Everardus Bogardus, being himself a man of somewhat authority because of his ministerial position, did not get along very well with Director General Kieft, who had succeeded Van Twiller; consequently, the Dominie set sail for Holland in 1647, for the purpose of laying some complaints before the Staats General, the governing body of Holland, and as before said, a body similar to the House of Parliament.

The ship's helmsman mistook the channel on the other side of the ocean; the ship foundered, and the Dominie and several others were drowned, and thus Anneke was left a widow the second time, and with four more children, as follows; (1) WILLIAM Bogardus, born Nov. 2, 1638; married first to Wyntie Sybrant, and to whom were born three children, as follows; Everardus, who died in infancy; Fytje, (of whom the writer has no knowledge as to her marriage or issue); Annetje, who in 1682, was married to Jacobus Brower. As previously stated: Wyntie (Sybrant) Bogardus died in Holland, where she had gone (so tradition tells us) for the purpose of settling the estate of the Webber family, from which family she was descended through Sarah, a daughter of Wolfert Webber, the first. William Bogardus was married second, to a Dutch widow, named Walburg De Sales or Salee, and they had five children, as follows; Cornelia, Everardus, who married Tatje Hoffman; Maria and Lucretia (twins); Blandian, who married Teo. Elswert. (2) CORNELIUS, born in 1640 married Helena Teller. They had but one child, Cornelius 2nd, who married Rachel DeWitt. Cornelius 1st died in 1666, leaving his son less than three years of age. In the purported conveyance of the 62 acre tract-herein-after more specifically treated- from the heirs of Anneke Jans Bogardus, to the British Governor Colonel Francis Lovelace, in 1670, it can be noticed from the wording, that no transfer or conveyance was entered into by the mother, or any guardian or administer, for the share of herself and her son, Cornelius the 2nd, that descended to them from Cornelius 1st, of his birthright in the 62-acre tract known as the "Dominie's Bowery", and this episode has been the subject of past litigation. (3) JONAS, born in 1643, and died a bachelor, (4) PETER, born in 1645; married Wyntie Cornelia Bosch. They had eight children, as follows; Marritie; Rachel; Ephriam; Wyntie; Peter; Hannah; Catherine; and Anna.

For the benefit of those who are not very familiar with their early genealogy, we will revert back for a short time to Annetje Bogardus, who in 1682 married Jacobus Brower, and from whom there are descended many prominent families.

Their children were as follows:

1. Sybrant - married Sarah Webber
2. Jacob - married Patronella De Montanyea
3. William--
4. Everardus - married Cornelia De Lanoy
5. John - married Ann Lozier
6. Adolphus - married Fanachie Pardon
7. Ann Elizabeth - married Jacob Quackenbush
8. Adam - married Deborah Allen
9. Peter - married Elizabeth Quackenbush
10. Wyntie---
11. Magdaline - married John Drake

In 1652 Governor Peter Stuyvesant, the last Dutch Governor of the colony of New Amsterdam, confirmed the 130 acre tract of land to the widow, which tract of land was owned jointly by Anneke, and Everardus Bogardus, prior to his death. In 1657, Anneke, the widow, sold a house, in all probability the one erected as a parsonage, near the Battery, and which was occupied by them and their family up till 1647, when Everardus left for Holland. After the sale of this house to one Wessels, Anneke Jans Bogardus moved back to Beverswyck territory, near the scenes of her earlier married life in America, and she died in Albany, New York, in 1663, Governor Stuyvesant having in 1652 confirmed to her the 62-acre tract, left by her first husband Roeloff Jansen.

The Will of Anneke Jans Bogardus is dated January 29, 1663, and is on file at the office of the Secretary of the State of New York, at Albany, it is said. This will has never been lost, notwithstanding several newspaper items in 1923, to the effect that her Will had been found, and was to be used as a basis for new action toward recovery of former lands, for present day descendants. Her Will was executed before a Notary, and according to the Dutch customs. The provisions of her Will should be carefully noted in connection with subsequent events.

WILL OF ANNEKE JANS BOGARDUS

In the name of the Lord, Amen. Know all men by these presence that this day, the 29th of January, 1663, in the afternoon, about four o'clock, appeared before me, Derek Schelluyne, Notary Public, in the presence of witnesses, herein after mentioned, Anneke Jans, widow of Roeloff Jans of Masterland, Holland, and now lately widow of Everardus Bogardus, residing in the Village of Beverswyck, and well known to us Notary and witnesses, the said Anneke Jans laying on her bed in a state of sickness, but perfectly sensible, and in the possession of her mental powers, and capable to testate in a sound state of mind, we can fully testify the same. Anneke Jans, considering the shortness of life, the certainty of death, and uncertainty of the time, she, the said Anneke Jans, declared after due consideration, without any provocation, compulsion or retraction, this present document to be her Last Will and Testament in manner following.

First of all recommending her immortal soul to Almighty God, her Creator and Redeemer, and consigning her body to Christian burial, and herewith revoking and annulling all prior Testaments, dispositions of any kind whatsoever, and now institute her sole and universal Heirs, her children, namely, Sarah Roeloffson, wife of Hans Kierstead; Catherine (Catrina) Roeloffson, wife of Johannes Van Brugh, also Jannetje and Rachel Hartgers, the children of her deceased daughter Fytje Roeloffson, during her life time the wife of Peter Hartgers. representing their mother's place, also her son Jan Roeloffson, and finally Wilhelm, Cornelius, Johannes (Jonas) and Pieter Bogardus, and to them do bequeath all of her estate, chattels, credits, monies, gold, silver, coined and uncoined, jewels, linen, woolens, household furniture, and all property whatsoever, without reserve or restriction of any kind, to be disposed of after her decease, and divided by them in equal shares, to do with the same as their own will and pleasure, without any hindrance whatsoever, provided nevertheless, with this express condition and restriction, that her four first born children shall divide among them, out of their Father's properties, the sum of one thousand guilders to be paid to them out of proceeds of a certain farm, situated on Manhattan Island, bounded on the North (Hudson) River, that before any other dividend takes place, and as these three children at the time of their marriage received certain donations, and as to Jan Roeloffson, is yet unmarried; he is to receive a bed and milch cow, and to Johannes (Jonas) and Pieter Bogardus, she gives a house and lot, situated to Westward of the house of her the testatrix, in the village of Beverswyck, going in length until a bleaching spot, and in breadth up to the room of her, the testatrix house, besides a bed for both to be an equivalent of what the married children have received, finally she, the testatrix, gives Roeloff Kierstead, the child of her daughter Sarah, a silver mug, to Annetze Van Brugh, the child of her daughter Catherine, a silver mug, and to Jannatje and Rachel Hartgers, the children of her daughter Fytje, a silver mug each, and to the child of William Bogardus named Fytje, also a silver mug.

All the donations to be provided for out of the first monies received, and afterwards, the remainder of the property to be divided and shared as aforesaid, the testatrix declares this document to be her only true Last Will and Testament, and desiring that after her decease, it may supersede all other testaments, codicils, donations or any formalities may have been omitted, it is her will and desire, that the same benefit may accrue, as if they actually had been observed, and she requested me, Notary Public, to make one or more lawful instruments in the usual form, of this, her last will and desire.

Signed, sealed and delivered at the house of the testatrix, in the village of Beverswyck, in New Netherland, in the presence of Ruth Schoonderwurt, and Evert Wendell, Witnesses.

This is the X mark of Anneke Jans by her own hand.

The forgoing quoted Will is Quite important to a fuller understanding of subsequent events, as set forth in this present work of review, for instance, the lawyer for the defense in the trial of the heirs of Anneke Jans Bogardus, against the Trinity Church Corporation in 1840 and thereafter, interpreted the Will of Anneke as being impossible of fulfillment, until the land of Roeloff Jansen, bounded on the North (Hudson) River (The 62-acre tract or the "Dominie's Bowery") had been sold, and consequently the joint conveyance of 1670, from all the heirs, except the share of Cornelius Bogardus the first, was made to Colonel Lovelace, at that time he was the British Governor, acting for the Duke of York in America, and the Duke being a brother to the King of England at that time.

It has been previously requested by the present writer, that the provisions and stipulations of the Will of Anneke Jans Bogardus be carefully studied, so that the reader might either verify, or contradict the contentions of the defense lawyer as above referred to, and thus satisfy their own minds on this point.

ANNEKE JANS BOGARDUS & ESTATE

Roeloff Jansen, of Masterland, Holland, arrived in America on the ship Eendracht in 1630. With him came his wife Annetje, and their three children, namely, Sarah, Catrina, Fytje. As regards the tradition common among the decendants of Annetje and Roeloff Jans, that she had the right to claim decent from the uppermost family of Holland, namely, her great grandfather being no less a person than the founder of the Dutch Republic, William of Nassua, Prince of Orange.

THE CAPTURE OF NEW AMSTERDAM BY THE BRITISH IN 1664

In 1664 the King of England claimed all of the territory of the New Netherlands because the Cabots, in the employ of the British government of Holland, had previously explored the Atlantic Coast. The King gave the territory to his brother, the Duke of York, and the Duke saying nothing to the Government of Holland, fitted out an expedition of four ships and sent them under the command of Richard Nicholl, as his Captain General, to take possession of his newly acquired territory, and in August, 1664, the conquest was made, and a surrender effected from the Dutch Governor, Petrus Stuyvesant, and without a shot being fired.

THE DUTCH WERE NOT TO BE DISTURBED IN THEIR POSSESSIONS:

The Articles of Capitulation were 23 in number, and they were drawn up on August 27th 1664 as between the New Netherlanders and the British, and they were signed at the Governor's Bowery, New York City, and the town of New Amsterdam having been named New York City, after the capture of it by the British, and in honor of the Duke of York.

Articles three, eight, eleven and seventeen are important in connection with the subject in hand, and these Articles read as follow:

ARTICLE III--All people shall continue full denizens, and shall enjoy their lands, houses, goods, whatsoever they are within this country, and dispose of them as they please.

ARTICLE VIII--The Dutch here shall enjoy the liberty of their conscience in divine worship and church discipline.

ARTICLE XI--The Dutch shall enjoy their own customs concerning their inheritances.

ARTICLE XVII--All differences of contracts and bargains made before this day, by anyone in this country, shall be determined according to the manner of the Dutch.

The articles were agreed to by the British Governor. The Dutch were required to take an oath of Allegiance to the King of England, and also to take out grants of confirmation for their land possessions, and pay fees therefore to the British Governor, and consequently confirmed to the heirs of Anneke Jans Bogardus, the 62-acre tract of land, known as the "Dominie's Bowery", and in word as follows:

CONFIRMATION OF THE 62-ACRE TRACT

"Whereas, there is a certain parcel of land lying on this island of Manhattan, toward the North River, which in the year 1626, was the land and bowery of Anña

Bogardus, to whom her and her husband, Roeloff Jansen, it was granted by the then Dutch Governor, Walter Van Twiller, at which time the said Roeloff Jansen first began to manure the land and to build thereon, the limits whereof did then begin from the fence of the house by the strand side, so running northeast to the fence of Old Jans land. It is in length 210 rods, then going along the fence of the said Old Jans Land southeast, it reaches to a certain swamp, and is in breadth one hundred rod, and striking along the swamp southwest, it is in length one hundred sixty rod, and from the swamp to the strand going west, it is in breadth fifty rod. The land lying on the south side of the house to the fence of the land belonging to the Company, (Dutch West India) and so to the east side, begins at the fence and goes south to the posts and rayles of the Company's land, without any hindrance of the path, it is in breath sixty rod. In length on the south side along the posts and rayles, one hundred and sixty rod. On the east side to the entrance of the Chalk Hook in breadth thirty rod, and along the said Chalkie Hook, on the north side of the fence of the land before mentioned, going west is in length one hundred rod, amounting in all to about 62 acres, for which parcel of land, Anneke Jans, the widow and relict of Dominie Everardus Bogardus, had heretofore a patent on the ground brief from the Dutch Governor, Petrus Stuyvesant, bearing the date of July 4th, 1654. How far a confirmation was to the children and heirs of the said enjoyment of the premises, know ye that by virtue of the commission and authority unto me given by His Royal Highness, I have satisfied, and by these presents, do ratify, confirm and grant unto ye children and heirs of Anneke Jans Bogardus, deed to aforesaid parcel of land and premises, with all and said singular appurtenances, to have and to hold the said parcel of land and premises, unto ye children, their heirs and assigns, with the papers used, and behoofs of the said heirs and assigns forever.

Dated the 27th day of March 1667.

(signed) R. Nicoll, Governor

It can be noted that the above quoted confirmation specifically states that the land was "lying on this island of Manhattans."

It can also be noted that there are two parcels of land mentioned in the confirmation and it is not possible, at the present time, to accurately locate the exact lines of these two tracts, as regards present day streets, however, this can be approximately done with a fair degree of positiveness. Hoffman, in his book, "Estates and Rights Of The Corporation of New York," Vol. 2 and page 181, is of the opinion that the southern boundary line of this 62-acre tract was also the northern boundary of the "Company's Farm" and which was between the present Warren And Chambers streets, the northern boundary line (Old Jans Land) was near Watts street and it would seem that this tract was somewhat separated on the river front, by the outlet into the North River of the drainage from the swamp that is mentioned in the descriptive confirmation. This outlet is supposed to have been where the present Canal street reaches the river, however, these boundary lines are more specifically and particularly set forth hereinafter, in the bill of complaint of the heirs of Cornelius Bogardus, the first, against the Trinity Church Corporation. (Trial of 1840 to 48.)

CONFIRMATION OF THE 130 ACRE TRACT

Another important document having a direct bearing upon this estate matter, is another confirmation to the children of Anneke Jans Bogardus by Governor Nicoll, of the 130-acre tract of land and which Senator Furman, as a lawyer for the defense in the trial of Humbert and others, against the Trinity Church Corporation in 1838, contended in his plea before the Court For Correction Of Errors, did not exist on Manhattan Island, because he could not locate Messpats Kill or creek thereon, and he established this creek and land as being situated on Long Island. It can be noticed from the following quoted confirmation, that the land was "surrounded by the kill, and on the west by the river." Long Island lies east and west, and it is bounded on the north partly by the East river, and partly by Long Island Sound. The confirmation of this tract of land was read in evidence at the trial of Bogardus versus Trinity Church, held December, 1846, and January and February, 1847. The confirmation reads as follows:

"Confirming a grant to children and heirs of Anneke Jans Bogardus, of a patent or ground brief, from the Dutch Governor, Petrus Stuyvesant, dated November 26th, 1652."

"Whereas, there is a certain parcel of land lying on the north side of Messpats Kill, Upon a neck of land, commonly called, or known, by the name of "Dominie's Hook," beginning at Pieter Andriessen's fence, so to run two hundred and five and twenty rods on both sides, having in breadth on the south side, one hundred and seventy-five rods, and on the north the like quantity, being surrounded by the kill, and on the west by the river, amounting in all to about 130 acres, and three hundred seventy five rod, for which said parcel of land, Anneke Jans, the widow, and relict of Dominie Everardus Bogardus, had therefore a patent or ground brief from the late Dutch Governor, Petrus Stuyvesant, bearing date of November 26th, 1652.

(Signed) Richard Nicoll,
Governor.

It can be noted that this particular confirmation does not state whether this land was located on Manhattan or Long Island, and in consequence, and as before stated, it was made to appear as being on Long Island, however, Messpats Kill or Creek, seems to be a mistranslation from the Dutch of Mespachtes Kill, the later being a creek that drained the swamp Chalkie Hook to the north, to about the present location of Canal street, and thence west to the Hudson River.

It can be noted that the confirmation states that this 130 acre tract of land was on the north side of Messpats Kill, or to the north of the present Canal street, in other words, and bounded on the west by the river, and these boundaries are impossible on Long Island it seems, but they are possible on Manhattan Island, with the above mentioned Mespachtes Kill, on the south line of the land, and the Hudson River on the west thereof. This theorizing is in keeping with the reproduction of a blue print map, in the possession of the writer, the original of which the writer saw in the east in the summer of 1923, and which original showed that the 130 and 62-acre tracts were adjoining and connected, which is in keeping with the charges in the bill of complaint of Jonas Humbert, in this trial against Trinity Church, and the proceedings of which are hereinafter set forth.

DEATH OF CORNELIUS BOGARDUS

An incident somewhat previous to the aforementioned confirmation of the 62-acre tract of land, and which is of historic importance, as well as legal, in connection with this review, was the death of Cornelius Bogardus, the first, he being the second born son of Anneke Jans Bogardus, by her second husband, Dominie Everardus Bogardus. Cornelius died in 1666, leaving a widow, Helena Teller Bogardus, and an infant son, Cornelius Bogardus, the second, who later married Rachel De Witt.

It will be noticed hereafter, that neither the mother of Cornelius the second, nor any of his uncles or aunts, nor any one acting as guardian or administrator, signed or entered into the conveyance, for his mother or himself, of his birthright in the 62 acre tract of land, that is claimed the other heirs sold to Colonel Francis Lovelace in 1670, Colonel Lovelace at that time being the colonial Governor for the Duke of York.

Title therefore from the heirs of Anneke Jans Bogardus, to Colonel Lovelace, was not absolute or complete, or clear, or perfect it would appear, inasmuch as all the heirs were not represented in the instrument, consequently, and from the standpoint of later day reasoning, at least, the title was not clear and perfect in the the Duke of York; when later this land was confiscated for him, from Colonel Lovelace, as is historically claimed, nor clear and perfect in Queen Anne, when at the death of the Duke of York, her brother, the land reverted to her, and later it was incorporated as a part of the Queen's Farm in the grant to the Trinity Church Corporation in 1705, the same faulty and imperfect title following throughout, according to analysis and deduction.

The transport, or conveyance from the heirs of Anneke Jans Bogardus, except Cornelius, the first, reads as follows, and the two dates given as to years, mean the old and the new calendar. It appears that Johannes Van Brugh, a son-in-law of Anneke Jans Bogardus, was the prime mover in this matter, and Johannes at that time was an under official of Colonel Lovelace, acting in the capacity of Orphan Master.

"Anno 1670-71, March 9th. Have (did) Johannes Van Brugh, in right of Catrina Roeloss (Roeloff), his wife, and attorney of Pieter Hartgers, William Bogardus for himself, and his brother Jan Roeloffson, and Jonas Bogardus, and Cornelius Van Bursum, in right of Sarah Roeloss (Roeloff) his wife, and by assignment of Annetje Roeloss (Roeloff), late widow of Dominie Bogardus, deceased, for a valuable consideration, transported and made over unto the Right Honorable Colonel Francis Lovelace, his heirs and assigns, their farm, or bowery, commonly known or called by the name of Dominie's Bowery, lying and being on Manhattan Island, towards the North River, the quantity of ye land amounting to about 62 acres, as in the former ground brief from Governor Stuyvesant, bearing date of the fourth day of July, 1651, and the confirmation thereupon from Governor R. Nicoll, bearing date of March 27th 1667, is more specifically set forth which transport was signed by them, and acknowledged before the Alderman, Mr. Olaf Stevenson, - Cortlandt, and Mr. John Lawrence."

The foregoing quoted transport was produced as a copy of the original, at the trial of Humbert against Trinity Church, and the copy was attested to as a true copy, taken from Lib. No. A, of transports begun in 1665, page 122, in the Clerk's Office of the City and Count of New York, and certified to by Clerk Benson, as correct or true copy.

The foregoing quoted sale or conveyance was necessary, it was claimed by opposition attorneys, in subsequent trials, in order to carry out the provisions and specifications of the Will of Anneke Jans Bogardus, but why seven-eighths of the tract was conveyed, or why the share of Cornelius Bogardus, the second, and his mother was not transferred is not known. Some later writers and commentators, have tried to account for this omission from the standpoint of theory and supposition, but the fact remains nevertheless, that the birthright of Cornelius Bogardus the second, and inherited from the estate of his father, was not sold or conveyed, or transferred, in 1670 with the other heirs, or since that time as a matter of record.

As further regards the joint conveyance in 1670, and which bears no signatures of any of the reported conveyors, so say those who have seen the document, we find that a committee representing the Trinity Church Corporation, introduced this document through the following quoted letter.

New York, December 2nd, 1785

Gentlemen:

"We take the earliest opportunity of communicating to you, the inclosed copy of the record of a transport to Governor Lovelace, of Dominie's Hook, from the heirs of Anneke Borgardus, and to which, through afterward granted by government to Trinity Church, you now claim to have inherited from them. Time and long uninterrupted possession had, it seems, worn away the memory of this transfer, and the evidence of it would probably still have remained dormant, if Mr. De Hart, who is deeply interested in your claims, had not ACCIDENTALLY DISCOVERED THIS RECORD, and from a regard to justice, which does him great honor, made it known."

The above quoted letter was addressed to certain agents for the heirs of Anneke Jans Bogardus, and the letter was signed by James Duane, John Jay, William Duer, John Rutherford, James Farquhar, as a committee of Trinity Church for managing their controversy with the heirs of Anneke Jans Bogardus.

It can be said that the committee signing the above quoted letter were all Trinity Church Wardens and Vestrymen, and their act in addressing the letter to the agents for the heirs, was repudiated at a later trial, and their authority to act was denied, because Trinity could not substantiate the authenticity and reliability of the joint transport, at that late date, moreover, the document carried with it, no clear title in fact, and claim was at that time, and that trial, made, that Trinity's title was derived through the so called "Queen Anne Grant," of 1705, and Which grant was likewise a disputable proposition, as may be later inferred, the original of which bore no signature or seal of Queen Anne, or her representatives, it is said.

In reading the foregoing quoted letter, it should be noted that it is stated therein that the copy of the transport produced, covered the "Dominie's Hook," which was the 130-acre tract, and not the 62 acre tract, and the latter mentioned we will now treat in detail historically as regards leases, etc.

As I read the following concerning the Will of Anneke Jans Bogardus, we of the Probasco family must be descendants of Cornelius 1st, and Cornelius 2nd, and Peter Bogardus. The family will be found on pages 15, 16 & 17 under the Bogardus family. I am still trying to connect us and will inform all if and when I do.

PROBASCO
Compiled by Alice M. Kennedy
R.D. 1, Mohnton, Pennsylvania

The Probasco Family originally came from Madrid, Spain, and was a family of considerable wealth and prominence. They became converted to the Protestant faith, and for conscience sake gave up all to go to Holland, where they might be with people of the same faith. However, in later years they decided to sail for America with other Hollanders, and landed in New Amsterdam in 1654. The name has been spelled many different ways, PROBUSCO, PROBASKO, PROBAJCO, PROBASCIO. The earliest baptism record we have is that of CHRISTOFFEL JURISNSE PROBASCIO, the common ancestor of all PROBASCIO'S in America. In Holland, they were principally clock makers, weavers, farmers and market gardeners. On Long Island, they lived in New Lotts, Flanders, Jamaica, and Lee's Genealogy speaks of a deal from Tunnis Jans Crevers and Thomas Lammerse to CHISTOFFEL PROBASCIO, being the first recorded in Brooklyn.

History does not give the date when the first PROBASCIO left Long Island, and settled in New Jersey, but, we find them there in 1701. It seems strange why so many of the Dutch People left the towns and villages of New York, and the society of their relatives and friends between 1690 and 1720, when there was so much unoccupied land close by, just as fertile and cheap as that of Monmouth, Middlesex and Somerset counties in New Jersey. Monmouth County, at that time was reached from Long Island by sailing vessels, generally small sloops.

Robert Barclay, of Aberdeen, Scotland, had been made Governor of New Jersey. He was brought up a Quaker or Friend. These prominent Friends were the controlling men in the government on New Jersey. This fact was known far and wide, and it was a guarantee that full religious freedom would be allowed in New Jersey, that fair laws would be enacted and the same equitable and justly enforced and construed. William Penn's name was a tower of strength. A Hollander also named Arent Sonmans, and his son Peter Sonmans, after his death was proprietor and owned thousands of acres in Somerset and Monmouth Counties. He was known to his countrymen in New York, and his influence to direct a current immigration to these countries. The quarrels, contention and troubles in the Dutch Churches in King County, Long Island, from 1705 to 1714, and the government interference with them also, disgusted many Dutch people and sent young men to New Jersey, where they could worship as they pleased.

NATHAN SACKETT PROBASCO

I have searched off and on for over fifteen years for his ancestors. With the help of Opel Probasco Morrison, we traced him back to New York. In a widows declaration for a pension, dated 9 May 1885, applied for by Susanna Probasco, there was statement filled out by her parents stating that, Nathan Probasco, married Susanna Carr, on 30 Dec. 1854, in Orange County, New York.

Orange County, was a large territory at that time, so finding the town or village would take a lot of research. The statement gave us one clue. The name of the preacher was Abraham Caddeback. We got the records for Orange County, and found an Abraham Caddeback practiced in Deerpark. However we were never able to find Nathan's or Susanna's name listed. Other than he was born in New York, I have been unable to trace any information on either one, or none that I was able to verify as true.

Faye Miller Hunt

The following is a copy of an application applied for by him, after serving in the Civil War. I have kept the spelling as it was on the application:

ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES CERTIFICATE OF DISABILITY FOR DISCHARGE

APPARENTLY NATHAN S. PROBASCO, DIED WITHOUT LEAVING A WILL. HIS WIFE SUSANNA, WAS MADE GUARDIAN OF THE MINOR CHILDREN AND SHE AND THE MINORS RECEIVED A PENSION FROM THE GOVERNMENT FROM HIS SERVICE IN THE CIVIL WAR. SHE HAVING GOTTEN REMARRIED HAD TO SETTLE THE ESTATE AND DIVIDE ALL THE PROPERTY BETWEEN THE LIVING CHILDREN. THE FOLLOWING PAPERS WERE FILED IN REGARD TO THIS SETTLEMENT. I HAVE COPIED THEM AS THEY APPEARED IN THE COURTHOUSE.

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF COWLEY COUNTY, KANSAS

In the matter of the Estate of Susanna

A. Probasco, George M. Probasco, Mary J.:

Probasco, Hulda M. Probasco, Minor heirs) of Nathan S. Probasco, Deceased. :

Comes now Susanna Probasco Strom, and for her report to the Court as Guardian of the above named minors, say:

That she was appointed Guardian of the above named minors on the 2nd day of September, 1887, by the Probate Court of Cowley County, Kansas, and that since her appointment as such Guardian, she has remarried, and that her name is now Strom as above set forth.

That the above named minors are the children of this Guardian and the said Nathan S. Probasco, Deceased.

That the said Nathan S. Probasco died in the year 1884, and at the time of his death, there was no Administrator appointed for his estate, and that there was no Guardian appointed for said minors until the time of the appointment of your Guardian as above set forth.

That on the 2nd day of September, 1887, upon affidavit filed by this affiant and Guardian here, as the Administratrix, and never published any notice of said appointment, and has never purported to act as the Administratrix of said husband, all of the personal property which he had was exempt personal property, and was such as would be turned over to this affiant as his widow as and for her separate property, except about twenty two head of hogs, and a small account for pasturing some cattle for one Reuben Houghton, and that after the death of her said husband, this Guardian as such widow continued to live upon the farm owned by him, together with her children, including the above named minors, and proceed to pay off the debts owing by her husband, and continued to occupy and use the farm the same as before, and use the property in and about the support of said family; that in addition to the minors above named, there were seven other living children at the time of the death of her husband. Some of them had grown up and married and moved away, and others were living there and continued to live at home as a part of her family; that she received in money from the personal property left by her said husband, which was not exempt and which, under the law would not have belonged to her, the sum of Fifty six ($56.00) Dollars for hogs sold, and the sum of Twelve ($12.00) Dollars on account of the pasturage owed by the said Houghton, making in all Sixty eight ($68.00) Dollars received from the proceeds of personal property of her said husband; that at the time of his death, some of the children were of tender age, the four minors above mentioned being of the ages of ten, eight, six and four years respectively, and that they continued together with some of the other children as a part of the family of this Guardian, and no account was kept of the personal property left, and it was used for the purpose of supporting the family, as well as the proceeds of the farm which was also used for their support.

Your Guardian further says that sometime after the death of the said Nathan S. Probasco, on or about the 26th day of June, 1884, she received as back pension coming to her said husband, and which had been applied for during his lifetime, from the government of the States, the sum of One thousand and one ($1001.00) Dollars, making all which came into her hands by virtue of the personal property and claims left by her said husband, the sum of One thousand sixty nine ($1069.00) Dollars.

Your Guardian says that she now believes that it would have been better if an Administrator had been appointed to have taken charge of all of the personal property of said estate of Nathan S. Probasco, deceased, and that the payments hereafter referred to, made by your Guardian should have been made under and by the direction of the Probate Court, but that your Guardian was advised at the time by the Probate Court of said County, that it would not be necessary to go to the expense of having an Administrator appointed, and that she acted in all of the matters and payments hereinafter specified, with the knowledge and advice of the adult children, being the heirs of said Nathan S. Probasco, deceased, and that she has paid out no money from any personal property belonging to said estate for anything except the just debts of said estate and for improvements upon the real estate left by said Nathan S. Probasco, which will inure to the benefit of all the heirs, and she believes that although said payments as hereinafter enumerated, were not made by order of this Court, still that they were all payments which were necessary, and which would have been ordered by the Court, and all of which tended to the advancement of the interests of all of the heirs by preserving the estate left so that more money can be realized by the said heir out of the real estate left; that at the time of the death of said Nathan S. Probasco, he owned the following described real estate, lying and situated in the County of Cowley, in the State of Kansas, to wit; The West half (1/2) of the North East Quarter (1/4) of Section No. Seven (7) in Township No. Thirty five (35) East, which was the homestead of the said Nathan S. Probasco and this Guardian during their lifetime, and that after his death, for a long time she continued to occupy the same together with her children, as her homestead; that at the time of the death of the said Nathan S. Probasco, there was a mortgage upon said real estate amounting to Three hundred fifty six ($356.00) Dollars and accrued interest, and at that time she received the back pension as aforesaid, that said mortgage with the interest amounted to Four hundred two and 26/100 Dollars ($402.26), and that on the 26th day of June, 1884, out of the pension money which she received as aforesaid, she paid off the mortgage and accrued interest in the sum of Four hundred two and 26/100 Dollars ($402.26) as aforesaid, and caused said mortgage to be canceled of record; that said payment was made before she was appointed Guardian as herein set forth; that by and with the advice and consent of the adult heirs of said Nathan S. Probasco, and before her appointment as Guardian, and out of the money received by her aforesaid, she built a new house upon said real estate and paid therefore the sum of Four hundred forty four Dollars ($444.00) and that said house was necessary for the comfort and convenience of her family, the heirs of said Nathan S. Probasco, deceased, and became an improvement upon the real estate left by the said Nathan S. Probasco, and is still there and inured to the benefit of all of the heirs, these minors included; that during the year 1884 she paid to one Dr. J.H. Griffith, the sum of $14.25; that said payments were for medical services rendered by said Dr. J.H. Griffith to the said Nathan S. Probasco during his lifetime and during his sickness, and that said amount was a just and proper claim against the estate of said Nathan S. Probasco, and that she took receipts for the payments made and they appear in three vouchers, numbered respectively One, Two, and three, which she attaches to her report and makes the same a part hereof; that on July 7th, 1884, she paid to F. M. Peek for blacksmith work done for the said Nathan S. Probasco, during his lifetime the sum of $3.00; that said amount was a just and proper claim against said estate, and was paid by her out of the moneys received from said estate; that she attached hereto the voucher for said payment and marks it No. Four; that on February 20th, 1884, she paid to Dr. C.W. Grimes the sum of $6.00; that said amount was a just claim against said estate for medical services rendered during the lifetime of said Nathan S. Probasco, and that she attaches hereto voucher for said payment and marks it No. five; that on June 31st, 1884, she paid Howard Bros the sum of twenty five cents for an account owing by the said Nathan S. Probasco, during his lifetime, and that she attaches a voucher for said payment and marked it No. Six; that on July 31st, 1884, she paid to Ware & Pickering for groceries bought by said Nathan S. Probasco, during his lifetime the sum of $12.75 and attaches a voucher for such a payment marked no. Seven; that on February 20th, 1884 she paid to Dr. R.H. Reed the sum of $5.50 being for medical services rendered by said Nathan S. Probasco, during his lifetime, and she attaches a voucher for said payment marked No. Eight; that after the death of her husband, by and with the advice and consent of her children, she purchased a monument and had it erected at the grave of her said husband by W.H. Dawson, of Windfield, Kansas, and that she paid the sum of $105.00 for the same, and gave two notes for said amount, which was afterwards paid, and she hereto attaches the two notes as vouchers for said payment marked No. Nine and No. Ten; that soon after the death of her said husband she paid to Peter Pearson the sum of $20.25, being for a coffin in which to bury her said husband and she attaches a voucher for said payment, marked No. Eleven; that after the death of her said husband, and before her appointment as Guardian, she purchased wire to build a fence upon the real estate above discribed, and paid therefore the sum of $52.00; that she has no voucher for said payment, but that she paid the same, and that it was necessary for the proper use and preservation of the real estate above; that since the death of her said husband she has paid the sum of $215.90 as taxes upon the property left by him and that she has received therefore various tax receipts, which she exhibits to the Court, but does not attache hereto because the same may be necessary for the protection of herself and other heirs in relation to the taxes upon said real estate, making in all which she has paid out of the debts left by the said Nathan S. Probasco, and for the use and benefit of the estate, the sum of $1280.26, being $211.26 more than she received from all sources as and for the personal property left by her said husband; that the real estate owned by her said husband has never been sold, and is still occupied by some members of the family, and is subject to be divided or sold, and the proceeds distributed among the various heirs according to their rights under the laws of the State of Kansas; that after the death of her said husband and up until the time when she remarried, she received a widow's pension and also a pension for the support of the minor children, being the sum of $2.00 per month for each of the minor children; that after her marriage to her present husband she received no further pension on her own behalf, but pensions were received by the minors under the law of the United States and the pension of two of the minors were paid over to the Guardian, not however, under the Guardianship provisions here, inasmuch as at the time of said death allowance of pension to said minors was made, she had removed to the Territory of Oklahoma, and she was appointed as Guardian for said two minors by the Probate Court of Kay County, Oklahoma Territory, and has given her bond as such Guardian for such pension money in the Probate Court of Kay County, Oklahoma Territory, and is responsible to that Court for the proper management of that estate of said minors; that the two Children of whom she has received pensions and for which she is responsible to the Probate Court of Kay County, Oklahoma Territory, are Hilda M. Probasco and George M. Probasco, and she asks that this Court may take no cognizance of said matter, but that the whole matter in relation to said pension money may be transferred to the Probate Court of Kay County, Oklahoma Territory, and she does not in this report either intend to charge or credit herself with any moneys received for said two minors by reason of said pension; that at the time said pension was allowed, the said Mary J. Probasco was still a minor, but she has been married and the pension check for her money was sent directly to her and this guardian in no way handled said pension check and should in no way be charged with any said money; that the payment of the said mortgage above specified was receipted upon the back of the mortgage and that she exhibits said mortgage showing said payment to the Court, with this report, but asks leave to withdraw said mortgage to hold with her private papers as a protection against any other claim by said mortgage, in case any question which arises under said mortgage.

That as shown by the above and foregoing report, she has no money whatever, belonging to any of said minors by reason of the property left by her husband, and should not be charged with any accounting with said minors in this court, and she therefore prays that upon the filing of this report, the Court may examine into the same, and examine her vouchers submitted, and may make an order discharging her from all liability in regards to her Guardianship of said minors in this Court, and that she and her bondsman may be discharged from all responsibility and liability herein, and that the Court may approve the payments of the money made by her as aforesaid, and that the matter may be finally closed so far as this Court is concerned.

I received this letter from Lea Scott, and I have retyped it just as Julian Miller did over 75 years ago. It is part of our past and thought it would add to your families book. You will find him on page 175.

MILLER FAMILY IN INDIANA

by Julian Miller

1921

The fairy skiff memory has advanced up this grand old river of time to the sweet Isle of Long ago where the treasures of my childhood lie buried. As I silently view this dear Isle of Long Ago, I sometimes imagine there are hands that are waved when the fairy shore by the mirage is lifted in the air, and I sometimes hear by the turbulent roar sweet voices we heard in the days before, when the wind down the river fair.

It is the dictate of nature to respect antiquity in anything.

We venerate a column which has stood the ravages of time. We contemplate with reverence the ivy covered castle through which the winds of centuries make melancholy music.

We gather with the care the fragments of the early history of nations which, however moldering or disjointed, have escaped the shipwrecks of time. There are some who spare no expense in collecting coin and relics which rust has penetrated or change of custom rendered valueless--save as they have within them the voice of other years. Why then should we regard with indifference our ancestors and the places in which they dwelt in the long ago--in their humble little cabins. They have long since been torn down but the ground upon which they stood will ever be held in our memory as sacred spots. They are indelibly pictured upon our minds because our ancestors and our father and mother lived there. It was their humble home and the very word has a soothing cadence connected with it's pronunciation. It constitutes the magic circle within which the weary spirit finds refuge; it is the sacred asylum to which the care-worn heart retreats to find rest from the toils and disquietude of life. It is a word which touches every fiber of the soul and strikes every chord of the human heart with it's angelic fingers--nothing but death can break it's spell.

What tender associations are linked with home? What pleasing images and emotions it awakens! It calls up the fondest memories of life and opens in our nature the purest, deepest richest fount of consecration thought and feeling. I will mention a few of these cabins and give their locations that are fondly cherished in my memory. The first I will mention was located in the forest surrounded by deciduous trees of many different species in the northeast quarter section 28-T1-R5 about a quarter of a mile South of the Clark County line in Greenville, Township, Floyd County, Indiana, on what was known as the Coffman farm at present owned by Charles M. Collins. It stood near a small ravine and lasting spring. Nothing remains to mark the exact spot of this cabin except the spring and two or three giant oak trees that have been spared by the woodman's axe. Occasionally you may pick up a piece of broken dish. The reason this spot is ever scared to me is because nearly a century ago lacking just a year, a family consisting of husband, and wife and son from Virginia in the year 1822 and four years after the great state of Indiana was admitted in the union, took up their abode in this cabin and on the 11th day of February 1825 there arrived to them in this humble dwelling, a bright-eyed baby boy and they christened him Samuel C. Miller, who is one of the principal characters in this narrative. This boy grew to manhood and spent his entire life in this section 28, in which he was born with the exception of a few years which he spent in section 34. Judging from his character in after life, I presume he was a model youth. He was educate in an old log school maliciously wrecked about the year 1870. The principal branches of thought at that time were spelling, reading, writing and arithmetic. I judge he was a very studious pupil for in after years he was well versed in those subjects especially above the average people of that time. He cared very little for sport of any kind. For the immediate vicinity at that time abounded with plenty of game of various species and I have heard him say he never fired a gun of any kind but once in his life, and that was on a very dark night when a dog was chasing his sheep and he succeeded in getting the intruder.

Many other little incidents in his life might be enumerated that would be of interest to certain ones, but I will pass on for the present and visit the spot of another old cabin that is equally dear to my memory. This one was located in the North West Section 33-T1-R5 East in the same township, county and state as the preceding one. It is now known as the Akers farm, owned by Geltmaker. Nothing remains of this precious spot but the never failing spring and at the time of my last visit there were two large pear trees still standing and several building stones were scattered around. In this cabin that stood here in the beautiful month of May on the 2nd day 1828 a light gray eyed girl made her appearance and her parents christened her Lucinda Akers, who is the other character in this narrative.

She grew to womanhood in the immediate vicinity, was a model youth and attended the same school as the preceding character and was in every way his equal, but she possessed a more jovial nature. I remember her showing us a large popular tree when I was a youth where she said her father killed a bear. I believe I could go to the exact spot.

When Samuel C. Miller attained the age of twenty-one and Lucinda Akers the age of eighteen years they were united in the Holy bonds of matrimony on the 20th day of August 1845. The Reverend George Brock officiating. Soon after their marriage they went to housekeeping in a small log cabin that had no floor except slabs. It was located in Section 34 near the present site of the Navilleton Catholic church. When the old log church was built, father said he took up one of the corners, they never resided there but a short time. In the year of 1849 on the 28th day of March he purchased from Claiborne Sigler for the amount of $200.00 about 30 acres in the South East Quarter Section 28-T1-R5 adjoining his father on the north and just east of his father-in-law, and they moved to another log cabin near a spring where they lived until they built a two-room frame cottage a short distance east where they lived until 1866. They then moved to a two story frame building which he had built. It contained five rooms and two large hallways and is located on the Greenville and Borden road.

They both lived here until their death.

He kept adding to his original 30 acres until he had 309 acres at his death. This place is now owned by Lewis C. Bradford and Frank Miller his sons and Charles M. Collins, his son-in-law. On this original 30 acres all ten of his children were born except Laura Etta and Clarissa Ann who were born near Navilleton. Samuel C. Miller and Lucinda Aker Miller were born and spent their entire life in Greenville Township, Floyd County within a radius of two miles of the place of their births. They in early life united with the Christian Church at Greenville and about the year 1870 they moved their membership to Chapel Hill Christian Church where it still remains. They lived a consistent pious life until their deaths, they were peaceful and industrious and conscientious in all their dealings with their fellow men. I never heard either of them utter an oath nor never heard father tell a vulgar story and their married life so far as I know was very peaceful and happy. Their parents and all their brothers and sisters and their children all adhered to the religious faith except Barbara Ann, father's sister and Elizabeth's mother's sister in after life they united with the Latter Day Saints a branch of the Mormon faith and Frank their youngest son united with the Methodist Church at Greenville.

The following was compiled by Julian Miller in 1921.

SAMUEL C. MILLER-- died Dec. 20, 1902, from pneumonia, age 77 years, 10 months and 9 days.

LUCINDA (AKERS) MILLER, died Jan 31, 1890 from asthma which she had suffered for a long time, age 61 years, 8 months and 29 days. Both she and Samuel were buried in the Greenville cemetery.

THE FOLLOWING ARE THE ANCESTORS OF SAMUEL C. MILLER AND HIS BROTHERS AND SISTERS AND WHO THEY MARRIED AND THE NAME OF THEIR CHILDREN:

ISAAC BREEDLOVE, the husband of BARBARA SHANKS, was born in the year 1776 in Culpepper County, Virginia. Isaac's parents were born in England. He married Barbara Shanks in Virginia and came to Indiana in 1822 and located on a farm in Clark County, about 3 miles south of Borden, just north of the old SCHARDEIN place. He died MARCH 25, 1859, age 83 years. BARBARA (SHANKS) BREEDLOVE, wife of ISAAC BREEDLOVE, was born JUNE 30, 1777 in Shenandoah County, Virginia. She came with her husband to Indiana. She died OCT. 28, 1851 age 74 years. I am not certain but I think they were both buried in the Coffman graveyard. To them several children were born and one of them, ELIZABETH BREEDLOVE, married HENRY H. MILLER.

ELIZABETH BREEDLOVE was born NOV. 2, 1800, in Virginia near the city of Richmond, she was married to HENRY H. MILLER, in Virginia and came with him and her parents to Indiana. She died MARCH 28, 1875, in Greenville with pneumonia, age 75 years, and was buried in the Coffman graveyard beside her husband. This burying ground is closed now. Ezekiel Ingram was the last one buried there in 1876.

HENRY H. MILLER, was born in Virginia on MARCH 7, 1784. I have no record of his ancestors other than they were of German decent. I have been informed that he had several brothers and sisters but they never corresponded after they separated.

HENRY H. MILLER and ELIZABETH BREELOVE, were married in Virginia In MARCH 1820. Henry was 36 and Elizabeth was 20 years old. They drove to Indiana by wagon. The Breedloves accompanied them. (I will interrupt this story to let the reader know that there is a little story told by one of the relatives in a letter, about their trip to Indiana, and I have put it in this book). I have been told that he could have purchased the land where the city of New Albany is located for the same price per acre as he did where he located but he was afraid of the Ague. After living a short time on the Coffman place, he purchased 62 acres in Greenville Township, Floyd County, Indiana in the Northeast Quarter Section 33 TI-R5 East, where he resided until his death. He died MARCH 12, 1847 age 67 years.

He was a wheelwright or turner. To the union of Henry H. Miller and Elizabeth (Breedlove) Miller eleven children were born, six sons and five daughters. They were all born in Greenville with the exception of John H., the oldest, who was born in Virginia. John H. was born Nov. 21, 1821, in Virginia, he died Sept. 12, 1896, age 75 years. He was married twice. His first wife Priscilla Bowlen died soon after bearing him three children, Jane, Caroline, and Rhoda. He then married Lucretta Winingar, a widow, to which union 6 children were born, Hattie, Alice, Clara, Elizabeth, Emma and Lenora, two others died in infancy.

MILLERS' MILL IN VIRGINIA
LATER KNOWN AS FINCASTLE, VIRGINIA

TAKEN FROM THE BOOK "SEED BED of the REPUBLIC EARLY BOTETOURT CO."
BY ROBERT STONER

JOHN MILLER, had a mill at present Fincastle, Virginia in 1745, as Col. John Buchan, states he stopped there in Oct. 1745, on his way to Wood's River Grant, to survey. East of this Miller land lay Israel Christians' holdings from whose land Fincastle was formed.

JOHN MILLER, who like Robert Looney, was one of the first settlers of this County. He carried on extensive operations at the mill on McRoberts Run. Which later became known as "Town Run" and the site of the town of Fincastle.

THE AMMEN HOUSE

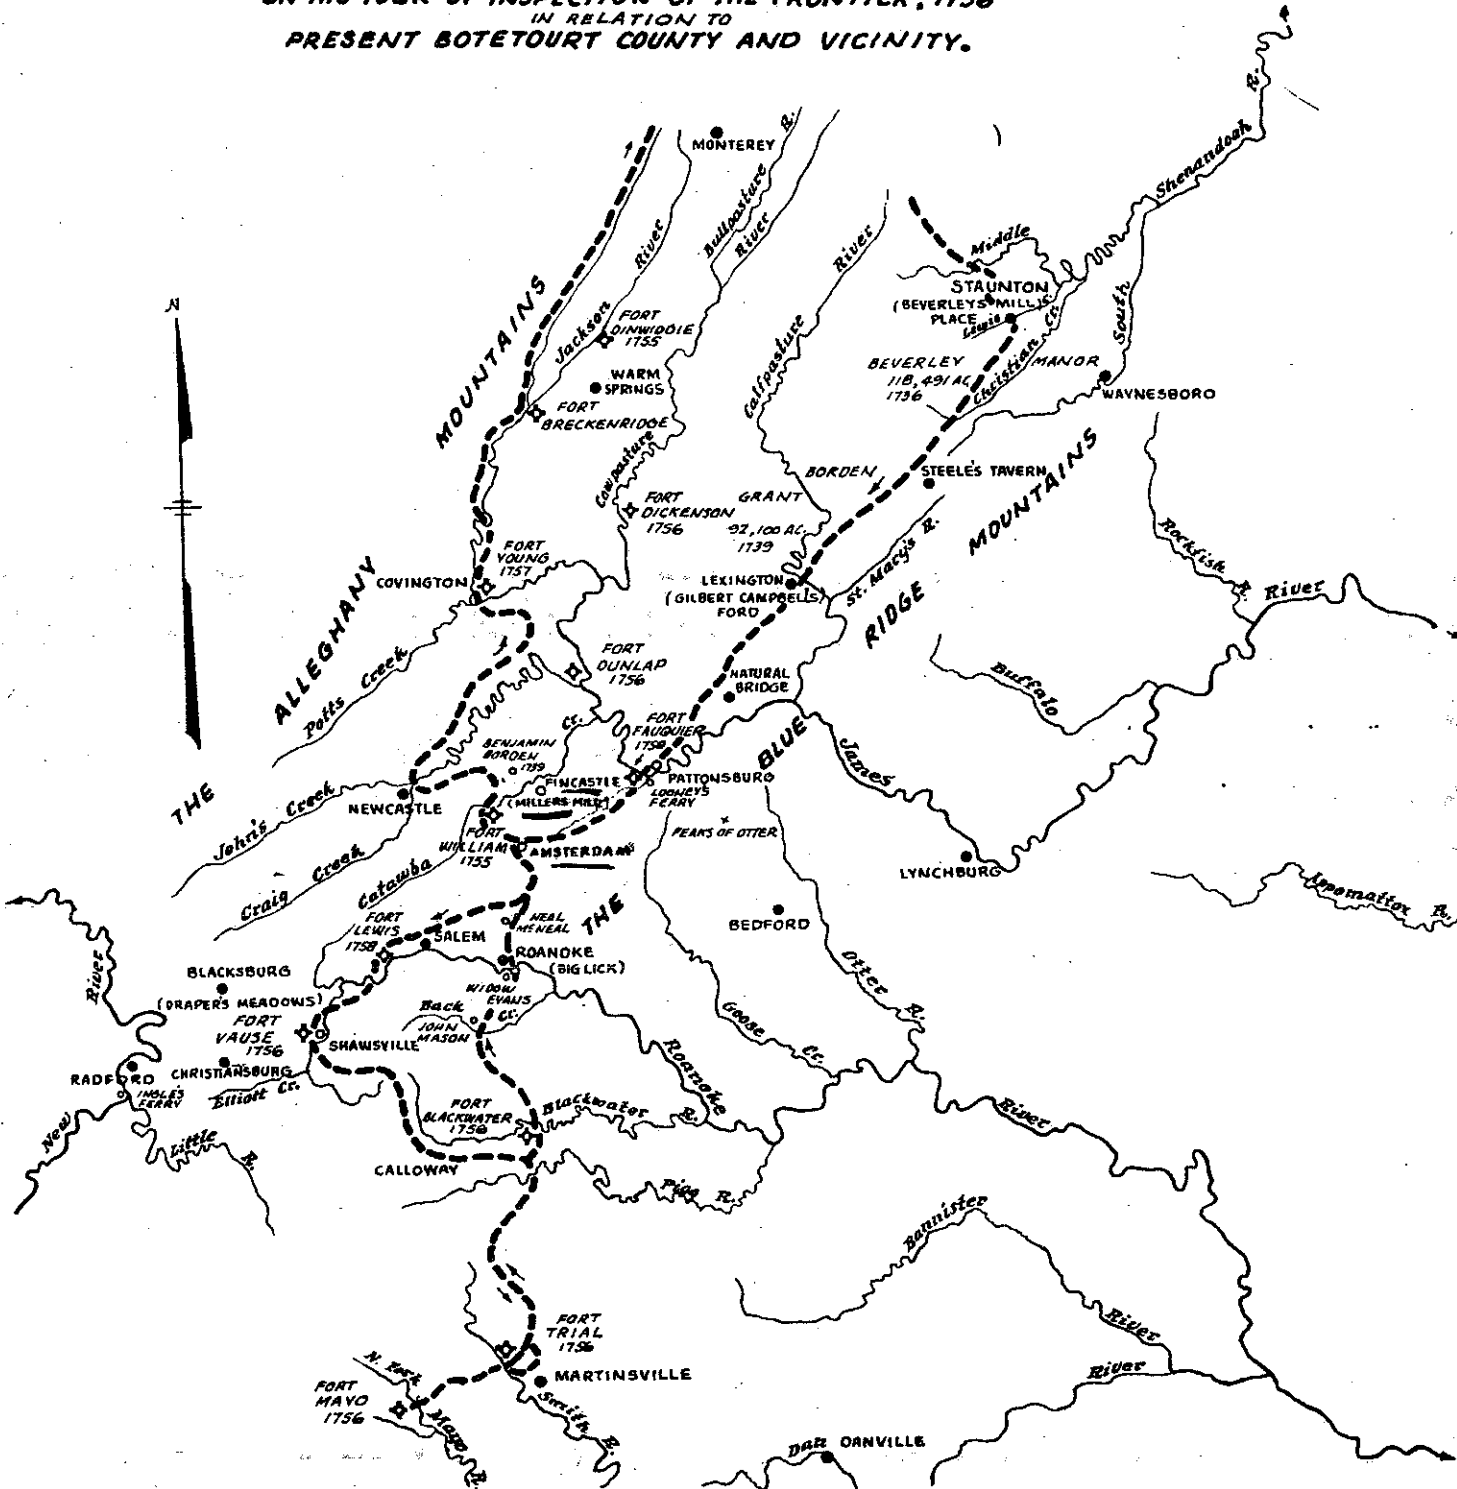

There was always a mill at Fincastle: in fact, Miller's Mill came even before Fincastle. In 1826 Benjamin Ammen purchased from his father-in-law, Thomas Cross, his mill which was located on the west side of the Town Branch, midway between the extension of Main and Black Streets. This land came through Benjamin Carper, Henry Wax, and John Miller of Miller's Mill. Whether Cross's mill was the original Miller's Mill is unknown to the writer, but the location is practically, if not absolutely identical. In a deed from Benjamin Carper to Benjamin Ammen in 1829 the present Town Branch is spoken of as "Ammens Run", so we can assume that Benjamin Ammen was then either operating the Cross-Miller Mill or had erected the Fincastle Woolen Mills. The Benjamin Ammen property on the Town Branch consisted of a flour and gristmill, sawmill of the old-time kind, a hatter's shop in the basement of the mill. and a carding mill to make rolls out of wool.

The following was taken from the "A REGISTER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF VIRGINIA 1797-1918."

"John Miller, was a member of the House of Delegates from Botetourt County, from 1797/98, 1799/1800."

Dear Jimmie:-

At long last I have gotten around to answer your letter and thank you for the material you sent. I am really sorry I missed you when you were here but will try to be here on your next trip to Indiana. So be sure to stop. You may have picked up this information, but I am sending run downs on both sides of your great grandmother so far as I have been able to check.

In a general way I have been able to check on the migrations on her father's side. In the early 1500^s went from Germany (Dunkards) to Holland to Pennsylvania (1700) then to Virginia (about 1730) then to Indiana 1822, so it seems they must have had some roving blood in their veins.

The county seat of Bouquet Co, Virginia (Fincastle) is situated on ground once owned by John Miller who was operating a grist mill there in 1745.

Yours sincerely,
Noble E. Miller

P.S.

Will be looking for you on your next trip.

Jim Barksdale

Dear Folks:

I hope you will forgive me for not expressing sooner my appreciation for your wonderful hospitality while we were there, and also hope you had a wonderful time on your trip and hope to hear more about it some day.

We had to return rather suddenly as Mildred's mother became ill so didn't get all done I wanted, but did get the information from the Coffman, Pleasant Ridge, Chapel Hill, Mt. Edin, and both Borden Cemeteries, and spent some time in the Corydon Court House. Found some Miller's there also. — No relation, but Brudlows are Thanks again for treating us so royally. I find that we are second cousins once removed on the Miller side. Haven't checked out the Scott's yet.

Will you give me your mother's father and mother's names? I failed to get this when there.

Sincerely,

Excuse me for scribbling on your letter. I am batching. Georgia is in the hospital with a heart attack for two weeks. Supposed to be home for another week for two more weeks in bed, so I will have to double batch these.
Doctors say she will be O.K. after the rest up.

One of the descendants of the Millers has built a home just south side of Coffman cemetery.
They keep it mowed & grassed. Looks good. Sometimes I believe there is such a thing as good luck. It is one of the oldest in the County.
First burial was John Miller in 1827 as proven by 1822 from Fincastle Va.

Hope this finds you hale & hearty.

DEAR COUSIN I AM SURE THAT YOU ARE:

I surely appreciate hearing from you and the information that you gave BARBARA ANN MILLER was my great grand Mother married as you have it to my Great grand father Scott James G. Scott and she died at our Home I remember when she died very well.

Noble Miller was my third cousin Henry H. Miller was my second great grand father he is also your second great grand father so that makes us also third cousins. Noble miller married Georgia Mckinley I use to go to school with her and she also was my cousin so his children are double relatives of mine. I went to her funeral in Green ville and one week later noble went to my wifes funeral she was killed in a train car accident while we were visiting and gathering genealogy in Indiana. I also remember visiting the Breedloves in palmyra indiana they were also my relatives.

I am related to the SCOTTS THE FORDYCES THE MCKINLEYS THE MCCUTCHEONS THE MILLERS THE AKERS THE JOHNSONS THE COOMS, THE GOULDSBERRIES THE TURLEYS THE BREEDLOVES, At one time I was related to every one in clark County Ind.

I was born July 23 1900 in Fredricksburg Ind. my dad's name was Felix o barksdale He married Lou Scott the daughter of Monroe scott whose father was James Gscott whose mother was Barbara Ann Miller scott This durn machine keeps making mistakes so I hope that you can read this.

Now all my records are turned over to my Youngest son GLEN E BARKSDALE 1063 SOUTH AND 200 WEST OREM UTAH 84057 I am sending him this information hich he will be very happy to get so He will be very glad to hear from you his phone is 801-225-9464 if you wish to call him.

Do not apoligizi for your writing imp erfektions I never let that bother me if a word gets in my way I just take a stab at it and go on I never look back My kids call my letters sign language so if they cant make our the signs that is just too bad I do not have time to check redo and look back I will be 85 July 23 and I do not have too much time ahead of me so why wast time correcting errors?

I certainly aporeciate you going to the trouble of sending us this information I am not sure but I do not think that we have any records any farther back than Henry H Miller but I am not sure as my son has all of those records. That Historic part is a Jewell I have been at the old COFFMAN CEMETARY But we are wokking on it and you never can tell when somthing will brake. I can remember hearing ~~xxx~~ my father talk about Jacob miller my Father was born in ~~1876~~ 1876 so he knew Jacob miller.

If y u get out this way come on over we are on 71 highway just one mile west of CONGRESS AT A SUBDIVISION CALLED PASO DEL SOL THE POST MISTRESS WILL TELL YOU WHERE WE LIVE IF YOU GET TO CONGRESS.

WITH SINCEREST B ST WISHES COUSIN JIM.

CONGRESS ARIZONA

HEIIIO THERE:

It was nice to hear from you and glad to get the information, however Glen is the brains of this outfit no so he will be happy to hear from you.

Now about the Coffman Cemetary it is on a farm back there and I had trouble finding it and I cannot direct you to it but go to a little town on a wide spot in the road caled NAVELTON, I believe that is the way it is Spelled, it is a little north east of green ville towards STARLIGHT ANOTHER small one and there should be a woman there by the name of JOSEPHINE NEVELL. If she is still alive I use to go to school with her and she could tell you how to find the Coffman Cemetary.

Yes I know the town of BRADFORD I use to go over there to get feed when we lived there north of Green ville.

PALMYRA Is in washington Couty right on the line between HARRISON CO.AND WASHINGTON county I was born there But I do not think that the Breedloves lived there I think that we just visited them there one time either in Someones home or something I was only about eight years old at that time..

I think that you will find the breedloves listed either at the Corydon court house or at salem Salem is the county seat of Washington County and they have many records there there is a Mrs. davis there that is quite a good person to meet as far as records is conserved ahe got me my Birth Certificate.

I also found a lot of information at the Jeffersonville Court House when I went back there they have the Clark county Records And I think that most of the Floyd County records are in New Albany.

We will be happy to have a visit with you but as you say you had better call us as we chase around quite a lot and Sophia will be gone over to La from Mar. 15 to the last of March she is going to visit her Brother in Manhatten Beach.

This is not much help but it is about all that I can tell you. butkeep diging and we will be happy to help all that we can and as I said Glen has the records and will be the most help.

SO THE BEST TO YEALL AS TEXAS SAYS

JIM BARKSDALE

I will add that I wrot to his son Glen and to this day have not heard from him.

Dear Jimmie,

Was most pleased to hear from you and know you are ninety percent O.K. I am doing all right myself. I could wish Georgia were here but I know it can't be, and I am thankful for the years spent with me. I have some very, very good memories. I am also thankful that her suffering and passing was mercifully short, even though it was quite a shock. I am at the shop every day but don't overtax myself, just keep busy and keep my thoughts on the present. However nights at home with the walls for company is not too pleasant.

I made a trip via route 66 to Los Angeles a few years past, thru up California thru San Francisco thru Yosemite, Yellowstone, Black Hills, Bad Lands, Salt Lake City & home, and don't suspect I shall ever do so again but will remember you if I should do so.

Here is the address of some of your relation, granddaughter of John Miller, brother to Barbara Ann Scott.

Mrs. David O. Chase 2620 W. 84th Pl. Inglewood Cal.
you may want to look her up.

Hoping for the best to you

CHEROKEE OUTLET

All of the area known as the Cherokee Outlet, was required from France in 1803, in the Louisiana Purchase. About 1719, an important French trading post was established five miles northeast of today's Newkirk, Oklahoma, on the west bank of the Arkansas River of Deer Creek.

Named Ferdinandina, this village flourished during the first half of the eighteenth century and is generally considered to be the first white settlement in present-day Oklahoma. In 1828, a "perpetual outlet west" in addition to other lands, was ceded to the Cherokees under a treaty between the western segment of the tribe and the federal government. The Outlet extended across northern part of the region that became the state of Oklahoma. From the 96th Meridian on the east, to the 100th Meridian on the west, and northward 2.46 miles from the Kansas-Oklahoma boundary and 58 miles southward.

Under the 1828 treaty and other treaties made in 1833 and 1835, the Cherokee exchanged their ancestral home in the southwestern part of the United States, for land in the Indian Territory west of the Mississippi River. In 1838-39, the majority of the tribe was forcibly removed to their western lands. Only a few individual Cherokee ever held land on the Outlet.

At the conclusion of the Civil War, the United States government and the Cherokee Nation entered into a treaty July 19, 1866, under which Indians gave permission for "friendly" tribes to settle on the Outlet. Between 1870 and 1881, the Osages, Pawnees, Nez Perces, Tonkawas, Poncas, Otoes and Missourias were assigned reservation on Outlet land. For this land, the Cherokees received from 47.5 cents to 70 cents per acre.

Also in the post-war years great herds of cattle were driven from Texas to the cowtowns in Kansas or to pastures on the northern plains. Between 1866 and 1884, more than five million head of cattle crossed the Indian Territory, most passed through the Outlet. In 1883, a group of ranchers met at Caldwell, Kansas, and formed the Cherokee Strip Live Stock Association. This organization secured a lease from the Cherokees, divided the Outlet into individual ranges, and continued to hold the grazing lands until 1891.

For many years, homesteaders had sought to occupy the lands of the Outlet being used by the livestock association. Beginning in 1880, groups of would-be settlers known as "Boomers" invaded the Indian Territory, hoping to force the Congress to open the lands for the white settlement.

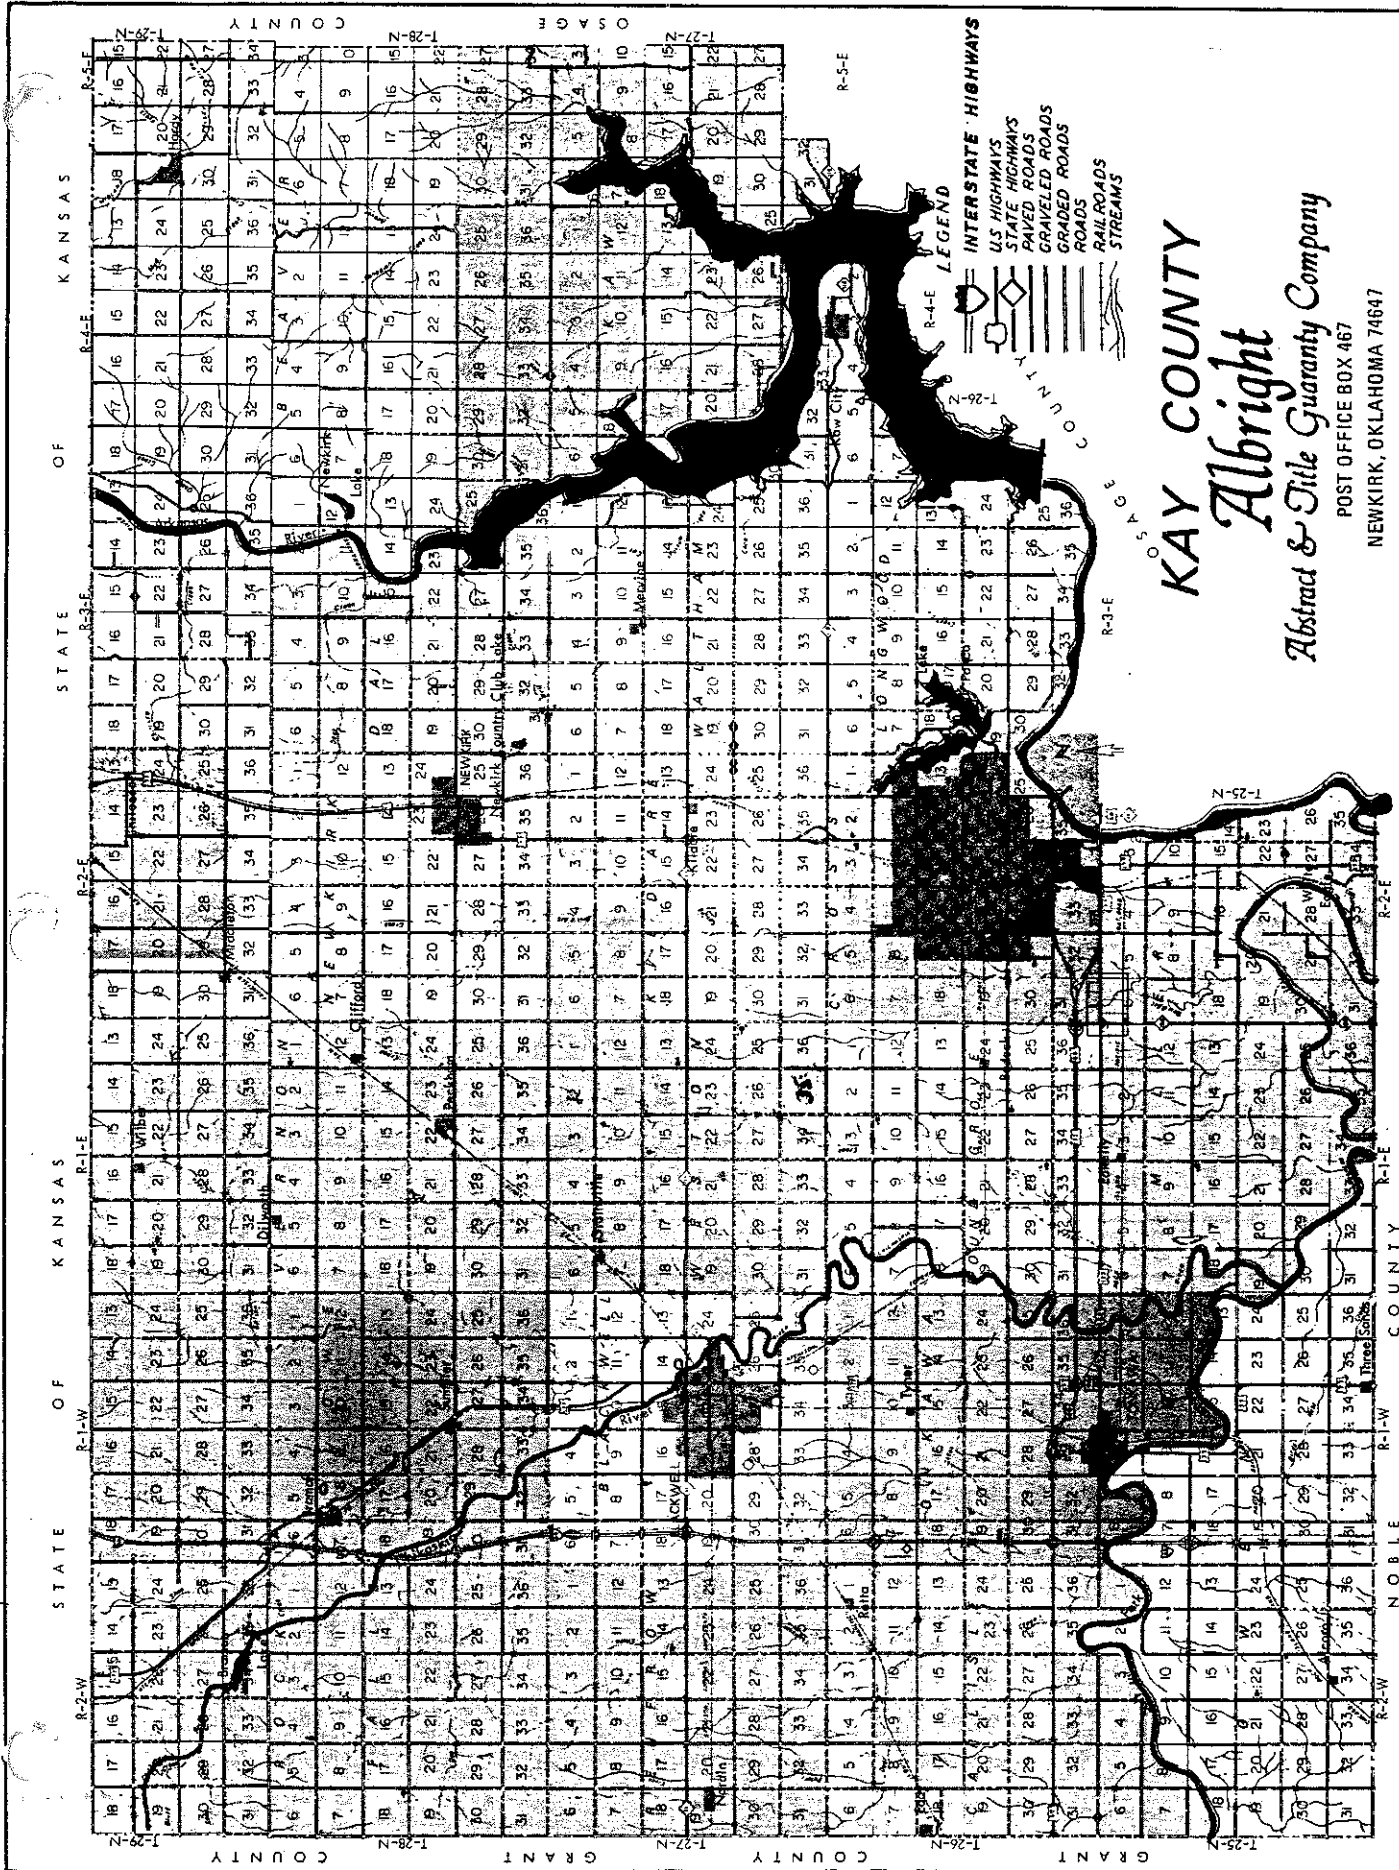

Federal commissioners began negotiating with the Cherokee in the summer of 1889, for the purchase of the Outlet at a price of $1.25 per acre. The Indians were reluctant to accept this price as a syndicate of cattlemen was offering $3 per acre.

Finally, on Feb. 17, 1891, President Benjamin Harrison yielding to pressure from the prospective settlers, issued a proclamation denying the cattlemen further use of the grazing lands, thereby terminating the grazing fees being paid to the Cherokees.

On Dec. 19, 1891, the tribe signed an agreement with the federal government under which it received $8,595,736 or approximately $1.40 per acre, for the remaining six million acres of the Outlet.

On Sept. 16, 1893, the greatest land run in the history of the United States took place. More than 100,000 eager land seekers raced for claims. The Cherokee Outlet developed into an important agricultural area with wheat as the major crop. There likewise is extensive cattle raising. Petroleum production and refining also are significant economic factors.

Further, within two years from the expiration of the said five years he must file proof of his actual settlement and cultivation, failing to do which, his entry will be canceled. If the settler does not wish to remain five years on his tract, he can, at any time after fourteen months, pay for it with cash or land warrants, upon making proof of settlement and of residence and cultivation from date of filing affidavit to the time of payment.

1. See note in red ink, which Registers and Receivers will read and EXPLAIN THOROUGHLY to person making application for lands where the affidavit is made before either of them.

Timber land embraced in a homestead, or other entry not consummated, may be cleared in order to cultivate the land and improve the premises, but for no other purpose. If, after clearing the land for cultivation, there remains more timber than is required for improvement, there is no objection to the settler disposing of the same. But the question whether the land is being cleared of its timber for legitimate purposes is a question of fact which is liable to be raised in any time. If the timber is cut and removed for any other purpose it will subject the entry to cancellation, and the person who cuts it will be liable to suit and for recovery of the value of said timber, and also to criminal prosecution under Section 3811 of the Revised Statutes.

George Ballinger

A graveside funeral for George Edward Ballinger, 65, of Chico will be conducted at 2 p.m. Monday in Chico Cemetery.

He died Thursday in a Chico convalescent hospital.

Ballinger was born Sept. 2, 1921, in Kay County, Okla., to Walter and Jessie Ballinger.

When he was 5 years old his family moved to Chico, where he was reared and educated.

He served in the Navy during World War II on the aircraft carriers Hornet and Enterprise and on the tender Kenneth Whiting.

Following his discharge from the Navy he went into the construction business, where he worked most of his life.

He retired in 1983.

He was a member of the Chico Veterans of Foreign Wars Post, Chico Eagles Aerie and the Chico Elks Lodge, where he worked in the charity bingo program.

Survivors include a son, Edward of Roseville; a stepson, Lester Brooks of Felton; two brothers, Glen and Bud, both of Chico; two sisters, Helen Logan of Durham and Thelma Moul of North Highlands; and four grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

The Chico Elks Lodge will officiate at the service and the VFW Post will provide military honors.

Contributions may be made to the Enloe Hospital oncology department in care of the Hall-Van Hook Funeral Chapel.

Elizabeth Miller Smith, 68, a resident of Chico for the past two years, died Friday in a local hospital.

Mrs. Smith, who had also lived here previously, was born Oct. 27, 1907, at Black Rock, Ark., and traveled extensively with her parents, who were associated with the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Co.

In 1930 she married Joseph L. Miller and they became Chico residents. After his death in March 1964, she married Carl Smith in Fremont in 1966. Between 1950 and 1964, she was employed by the U.S. government in San Francisco.

In Chico she had been employed by the Butte County Credit Bureau, Sears-Porter Realty, Kilpatrick Grocers, Chico Air Base and the Butte County Farm Bureau.

She had been a Christian Science practitioner since 1964. At her request, no funeral services will be held.

Survivors include two sons, Bradford Miller of DeQueens, Ark., and Forrest A. Miller of Nashville, Tenn.; three daughters, Mrs. Eldon Clark of Chico, Mrs. Leo Kingcade of Sacramento and Mrs. Robert A. Hunt of Milpitas; two sisters, Mrs. Hal Stavig of Chico and Mrs. Doris Jones of Huntington Beach; 15 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. A daughter, Betty J. Palmer, died in November 1970.

Cremation will precede interment in the Irving Memorial Mausoleum, Fremont. The Brusie Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. The family requests that donations be made to the Christian Science Church.

BREEDLOVE--MILLER

I received the following letter from Mr. James Barksdale, written to him Sept. 4, 1967, by Hazel M. Gibbs, of Idaho. It seems we are all from the Breedlove family. Hazel details the trip taken by the Breedlove-Miller family from Virginia, to Indiana in 1830. A letter written by Noble Miller, (page 162) has them coming to Indiana in 1822. Think he might be right since he mentions John Miller being the first burial in the Coffman Cemetery in 1827, a pioneer of 1822, from Fincastle, Virginia.

Dear Mr. Barksdale:

Your letter came while we were back east and south visiting my people and going to reunions. We just got back and you know what a job it is trying to answer all letters and making out family group sheets and pedigree charts for people.

I was very happy to rec. your letter on the Breedlove genealogy. I have worked so hard for 30 years trying to find my second great grandfather's name and where in Va. they were born. There are a lot of Breedloves in the South, and still are today. Their has been a lot of people working on the Breedlove line. Your line seems to be the closes to my line.

First, I will tell you what has been handed down to me through the years about my line of Breedloves.

"The Breedlove's came from some where in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia. There were four Brothers, John, James, William, and Henry (Hen) and two sisters Elizabeth and Lucinda. They left Virginia, in the autumn of 1830, because of their dislike of slavery. In the crowd with the Breedloves were the Millers, Hoovers and Chambers families. They had mules that carried their belongings, traveled on foot by night and hid in the dense forests by daylight, to let the mules eat and rest, they ate apples and corn from the orchards and fields. They crossed the Ohio River at Louisville, Ky. Landing at New Albany, Indiana, in Floyd County, Ind. here the families separated, going to different places to find work.

The four Breedloves and two sisters went to Brown Co. Indiana and settled around Helmsburg. John and James stayed there. James dying there in 1902. John was suppose to have been in the war of 1812, (records not verified). He was married twice, time or place or name of the first wife not known, second wife's name was Polly Ann. They had twins. Uncle John lived in and around Helmsburg, until he was quite old, then went to South Dakota where he was living when he died. (information by Mary Stidd Breedlove).

"Now this is what my grandfather George Washington Breedlove told me about the Breedlove's" That Henry Breedlove came to Indiana, about 1830, he was suppose to have a half-sister, Betsey and a half-brother James. It is said that he had a full brother William Breedlove, who took off for the gold rush in California, in 1858 and died on the way, supposably in Missouri. Betsey married a James Hanley. We know that grandfather Henry Breedlove had other half-brothers and sisters.

Now the census records of Floyd Co. IN. in 1830 you will find John Breedlove and wife, with 2 sons, and 3 daughters. John was between 40-50 and his wife 20-30, so you can see she was 20 years younger than him.

You also find H. H. Miller, age 30-40, wife 20-30, and children. (this would be Henry H. Miller, his wife Barbara, and 5 of his 11 children).

Then Isaac Miller, age 60-70, wife 50-60 with 6 sons and 2 females.

Then Elizabeth Miller, age 50-60 and 1 male age 15-20

William Breedlove, age 20-30, wife 30-40, with 2 males 5-10, females one under 5, two 10-15 and one 5-10. These were in Floyd Co. IN.

In the 1850 census of Floyd Co. IN.

I don't know if you have this information or not. So thought I would send it so you could check with yours.

I am sure we are on the same line of Breedloves, only I have not proved it yet. I am going to write to a researcher in Indianapolis Library to help me find my second great grandfather.

May I ask where you got my name and address from? Where is Clifton Colo.? I wish I had gotten your letter before we went east last July and Aug. My people still live back east and in the south. I have one uncle that is 92 years old. He lives in Kokomo, Howard Co. Indiana.

I sure hope you will answer my letter and tell me what you think about this information I have sent you about the Breedloves in Floyd Co. Ind. I sure hope it will not be long before we can connect these two lines.

Sincerely yours,

Hazel M. Gibbs
